

Discover the Key to Paradise...

Vacations are supposed to help one relax, to find peace and tranquility. If only you could find the comfort of your own home while away on vacation, wouldn't it just be... the perfect vacation.

Your dream rental is here and we can help. You've just got to find the right rental house, condominium, or apartment for your vacation instead of the average hotel. By renting your own private house or villa to do your vacationing, you'll uncover an incredible world of opportunities just waiting to be discovered.

It doesn't matter if you're taking a family vacation or planning a family reunion, celebrating a special occasion, a wedding, a birthday, or even an important, off-site business meeting. Renting a private house or villa is the best solution. Manuel Antonio Estates' private houses and villas offer the luxury and convenience of your own, private swimming pool, plenty of extra living space to share with family and friends, fully-equipped kitchens and private grills to do the entertaining of a lifetime-- and you can even invite one of the most well-known chefs in the area into your home to do all that cooking for you! Walk your way down to the world-class Raindrop Spa located right here on our property where you can choose any of the many soothing, invigorating, or revitalizing treatments we have collected from around the world. In combination with our regular pilates and yoga classes, offered at a discounted rate to our Manuel Antonio Estates 'residents', you'll be able to truly take a break and make the absolute most of your time here.

Located in Manuel Antonio, within walking distance from the quaint little town of Quepos, you'll find the private, gated community of Manuel Antonio Estates-- a fixture in the area for more than eight years now. Here you'll find a place that meets all of those standards that you've set for your perfect vacation and a chance to create memories that will last forever...

On our property there are currently eight rental houses that have between one and seven bedrooms, which allows you to choose from a variety of houses the one that best accommodates your groups' needs depending on how many people are traveling with you. We also offer several Cozy Condo options that are completely furnished and that sleep up to four people and are extremely economical.

For those that enjoy life at a tranquil pace, Manuel Antonio Estates offers a peace with nature that very few other establishments can match. Wake up to the incredible variety of birdsongs native to the area just outside of your bedroom window and spend the afternoon entertained by the daily troop of white-faced and squirrel monkeys that visit the houses on their way home for the evening.

And as you know, Manuel Antonio National Park is one of the most visited protected areas in Costa Rica which allows the surrounding area a wide array of outdoor activities and every type of adventure that you can imagine! Enjoy a variety of water sports ranging from sport fishing to scuba diving, jet skiing, ocean and mangrove kayaking, sunset sailing cruises, and of course, the ultimate Tico pastime-- surfing. Choose from adventure sports such as mountain biking, white water rafting, ATV fourwheeling, horse back riding, and waterfall rappelling! For those that are looking for more educational or nature-centered activities you can turn to the guided tours of the National Park, a visit to the Botanical Gardens with hundreds of species of butterflies, or a trip to the local vanilla plantation where you'll find everything from organic vanilla, white and black pepper, and cinnamon growing in its natural habitat... as well as packaged and ready for purchase in the spice shop!

In a place that's just teeming with nature, animals, and local wildlife, in one of the most beautiful beach towns in the country, and offering round-the-clock security, affordable rates, incredible restaurants and all of the adventure and relaxation you could possibly ask for, you are sure to find the equation for that perfect vacation, and sure to discover the true meaning of "pura vida" living here at Manuel Antonio Estates.
